INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING APPEAL OF CERTIFICATE OF PERMISSIBLE RENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

A landlord or tenant can challenge a Certificate of Permissible Rent Level by filing an appeal within fifteen (15) calendar days of the issuing date of a certificate that is personally served, or within twenty (20) calendar days of the issuing date of a certificate that is served by mail. (Reg. 1007.) The appeal must state the factual basis for contesting the certificate. (See Section 9 of attached appeal petition.) A tenant who files this appeal and seeks reimbursement for an alleged rent overcharge must file a separate Tenant Petition for Individual Rent Adjustment with this appeal petition.

Common grounds for appeal are:

1. The certificate does not accurately reflect a prior rent ceiling determination;
2. The certificate does not reflect an initial rental rate established for a new tenant on or after January 1, 1996; and
3. The unit was not eligible for Annual General Adjustments (AGAs) after the last rent ceiling determination or establishment of the initial rental rate.
4. The unit was not in compliance with the Implied Warranty of Habitability for any year since the date the unit was last certified.

You may find it helpful to review Regulations 1004 through 1007 of the Regulations before filing an appeal of the certificate. Copies of the Regulations are available at the Rent Board's office, the Berkeley Public Libraries and on the Internet (<http://www.ci.berkeley.ca.us/rent/>). Rent Board counselors are available to answer questions about the certification process, in person or by telephone at the number listed above, Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, 9:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., and Wednesdays, 12:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

FILING AN APPEAL OF A CERTIFICATE

To appeal a Certificate, you must mail or bring the following items to the above address:

1. A completed and signed appeal petition;
2. A copy of the Certificate; and
3. A proof of service stating that each opposing party was served a copy of the appeal petition and documentation either by first-class mail or in person.

A completed proof of service is required each time documents related to the appeal are filed.

Note: To challenge a previously certified rent, you must file a different form: a petition for Redetermination of the Certified Rent. The grounds for such a challenge are limited to fraud or intentional misrepresentation, failure to receive notice, or a vacancy occurring during the appeal period.

AFTER AN APPEAL OF CERTIFICATE IS FILED

The appeal will be scheduled for a hearing before a Hearing Examiner. Notice of the time, date and place of hearing, and information about the hearing process, will be mailed to all parties before the scheduled hearing date. A decision will be issued within sixty (60) days of the date the appeal is filed, unless time is extended by request of the parties or for other good cause.
