Please complete the attachment form and indicate any supporting documentation that you are submitting with your vacancy exclusion period claim(s). All the vacancy exclusion attachment forms can be found online at: rentboard.berkeleyca.gov/vacancy-exclusion-periods.

UNITS THAT ARE NOT VACANT

If a formerly vacant residential unit becomes rented*, the unit's occupancy status should be updated with the Berkeley Rent Board. Most rented residential units are fully or partially covered by the Rent Stabilization Ordinance and must be registered with the Berkeley Rent Board within 60 days from the start of the tenancy. If the residential unit is not rented but is occupied it is likely exempt from rent registration. Even if a unit is not rented owners should make sure that the unit status claimed with the Rent Board is accurate.

*A residential unit is in an occupied status such as rented by a tenant is exempt from the Empty Homes Tax. The unit status can be updated using the online rent registry portal: <https://rentregistry.cityofberkeley.info/>.
